THE other Nations of the earth, including the U. S. A., will wake up some day and discover that President CASTRO of Venezuela has a few rights which he is justified in maintaining. CASTRO is little, and his country is little, but oftentimes it's the big bluffers who are wholly wrong.

THIS is the era of the "injunction." What we need is a divine or an oracular interpretation of the injunction. Its status should be settled for all time. It is getting so now that one can sue out an injunction against anything and everything or anybody.

Even the Federal Government is not exempt from the clogging operation of the injunction, and some of these days, if the thing goes on, we may expect to see the injunction used as a partisan weapon to estop Congress from legislating or the august Supreme Court of the United States from sitting. The status and scope of the judicial injunction should be settled and outlined.

Nobody knows just where he is at when he is entangled in the mazes of a restraining order, a mandamus or an injunction.

From war, pestilence, sudden death and the American injunction may the good Lord deliver us.

Imagine King SAMUEL GOMPERS dispensing injunctions and hurling this partisan weapon at the head of organized industry.

THE TACTFUL DOCTOR.

Success Magazine.

A physician in a small town in Northern Michigan got himself into a serious predicament by his inability to remember names and people. One day, while making out a patient's receipt, his visitor's name escaped him. Not wishing to appear so forgetful, and thinking to get a clue, he asked her whether she spelled her name with an e or i. The lady smilingly replied, "Why, doctor, my name is Hill."

Ice Cream Flavors

So much of the delicious quality of ice cream, ices and similar dainties depends upon the flavoring extracts that we are sure no one would think of using any other kind after they once tried ours. Our Vanilla and Lemon Extracts have a rare and peculiar delicacy and strength of flavor that is entirely missing in anything but the pure fruit extracts properly made. We make our flavors in our own laboratory from the choicest materials and know there can be nothing purer or better.

RUGGLES CAMPMEETING

What Is Going On Now at These Beautiful Grounds

RUGGLES CAMPMEETINGS, July 23d, 1908.

It is with pleasure that we chronicle the opening of another meeting at these Campgrounds. For thirty-four years people have assembled annually at this place and at this time of year to enjoy the glorious meetings that from year to year have been held here.

There has been a continuous forward movement from the very beginning in everything that appertains to the success of the work. The grounds are prettier each year. New improvements are added and everything that could be done for the spiritual, intellectual and physical good of the people has been done.

This, the first day, has been a good one. The weather in the forenoon was clear and in the afternoon a fine rain fell, which will brighten up things just right for Sunday.

Rev. F. W. Harrop, who is in charge, started the meetings at 10 a. m. It was a meeting of preparation. He called on several to answer the questions concerning these meetings, "What they ought to be and what they may be." In the discussion some splendid thoughts and ideas were expressed by the Ministers and laymen present. Rev. Harrop closed the discussion with some very enthusiastic and optimistic remarks.

Rev. G. W. Bunton led the young people's meeting at 3 o'clock, which was taken up principally with singing new songs from the new song book to be used during the meeting. The fact that Rev. Bunton is to have much to do with the young people's meetings is a guarantee of their success.

At the evangelistic service at 7:30 the Rev. William Jones of Ludlow preached a very earnest and practical sermon from the text, "Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus."

The attendance at these meetings have been as good as any of previous years. The children's meetings are to be held each afternoon at 1:30 and will be ably looked after by Mrs. John Bentz of West Covington.

We are looking forward anxiously to the coming of Bishop Moore tomorrow evening. The Bishop is not a stranger to Ruggles Campground, he having visited here several times while Editor of The Western Christian Advocate. He is a great Preacher and since his election as Bishop he has traveled considerably in the Orient, and with his enlarged experience we are sure of a great treat when we hear him.

The following Ministers are on hand at present: Revs. F. W. Harrop, Latonia; G. W. Bunton, Maysville; W. H. Davenport, East Maysville; W. H. Morris, Tollesboro; G. O. Waggoner, Wallingford, and William Jones, Ludlow. Others are expected daily.

Maysville never fails to contribute her quota of campers. We note the following here at present: John Crane and family, W. Fred Thomas and family, Mrs. J. H. Dodson and daughters, Ward Nash, Miss Della Goodwin, Mrs. T. J. Winter, Mrs. B. P. McClanahan and son, W. P. Bowman and family, Mrs. Ira Newell and children, Mrs. W. B. Tully and family, Miss Anna R. Smith, Mrs. Len Purnell, Rev. Davenport and family, Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Bunton, M. A. Wallingford and J. H. Richardson.

Mr. W. P. Bowman is one of the proudest men on the grounds by reason of lately coming into possession of one of the most handsome gold-finished cornets made. It is the "Conqueror" model, and in tone and finish seems to be about as fine as possible to make them. As our cornetist, Mr. Bowman is prepared to give us the very best.

Messrs. Reed Richardson and Glen Marsh of Moransburg were visitors on the grounds today.

Rev. Davenport has as guests for the Campmeeting his son, Mr. James Davenport, and wife, of Ashland, Mr. Herbert Barber of Ashland and Miss Minnie Ryan of East Maysville.

Much regret is expressed on account of the absence of Mr. I. M. Lane, who is kept from us by reason of recent injuries. It is hoped by all that he will sufficiently recover to be with us soon. Speaking of Mr. Lane reminds us of the kind and thoughtful regard our good Pastor, Rev. Bunton, has for Mr. Lane. The other day the Reverend gentleman, knowing Bro. Lane's fondness for young rabbit, proceeded forthwith to get one, and the following day he hastened proudly to Bro. Lane's home with his game and said, "Here, Bro. Lane, is your meat—a fine young rabbit." After Bro. Bunton had departed Mr. Lane critically examined Mr. Rabbit and found that if Mr. Rabbit had attempted to vote his vote would never be challenged on account of his age. Mr. Lane thinks the Pastor is a better judge of sermons than he is of rabbits. J. H. R.

Mr. W. C. Beard of Catlettsburg, formerly of this city, attended a family reunion at the home of his parents at Junction City this week. It was the first time that all the members of the home circle had been together in thirty-two years.

REV. P. T. HALE

Prominent Minister to Preach Tomorrow at First Baptist Church

The Rev. Dr. P. T. Hale, Corresponding Secretary of the Baptist Educational Society of Kentucky, is to preach in the Baptist Church tomorrow, morning and evening. Every member of the Church is urged to be present, also a cordial invitation is extended to the entire public.

About two years ago a good layman of Williamsburg, Ky., offered the Society 4,000 acres of coal land in the Jelico coal field, provided it would raise $400,000 additional endowment for Kentucky Baptist Schools and Colleges. Dr. Hale was immediately called from one of the leading Tennessee Colleges to raise this amount, which stupendous task he has accomplished save about $50,000, which will, of course, be raised within the next few months.
